CIVIL ACTION NO. H-04-4861

ORDER

Former federal inmate I. Stephan Bloch has filed a pro se complaint alleging violations of his civil rights under Bivens v. Six Unknown Federal Narcotics Agents, 403 U.S. 388 (1971), and he has been given permission to proceed in forma pauperis. After screening the complaint under 28 U.S.C. § 1915A the Court ordered service of process on the following defendants: Danesa Samuels, Cory Clark, and Terry Garcia. Bloch has filed a motion for “clarification.” He objects that service of process was not also ordered for two other defendants named in the complaint. He further objects that Cory Clark was not served at the address shown in the complaint.

It is ORDERED that the motion for clarification (Docket Entry No. 11) is GRANTED, but Bloch’s OBJECTIONS ARE OVERRULED. The Court will issue a corrected order for service on Cory Clark and will issue an additional order for service of process for the other defendants at a later time if it becomes necessary.

The Clerk will provide a copy of this order to the parties.

SIGNED at Houston, Texas on September 20, 2005.

United States District Judge
